

Dianne Haulcy is the Chief Operating Officer of The Family Partnership. The Family Partnership recently merged with Reuben Lindh Family Services where Dianne served as the Executive Director for four years. She currently oversees a staff of 100 with services including therapeutic early childhood education, in-home parenting, behavioral health and many family and community programs. Dianne has a BA in Sociology from Spelman College and an MA in public affairs from the Humphrey Institute at the University of Minnesota.

Dianne has almost 25 years experience in the non-profit sector. She is the former executive director of St. Stephen's Human Services in Minneapolis, a non-profit serving homeless families and individuals and the former Director of Programs and Services at Model Cities of St. Paul, Inc. where she was over early childhood services, supportive housing and crisis intervention. She has shown leadership in the non-profit field as the co-chair of the Northside Achievement Zone Early Childhood Action Team. Selected to be a participant in the Leadership Twin Cities program in 2006-07, she has also served on many board over the past 15 years and currently serves on the Advisory Council for the Parents as Teachers program and she is on the Treasurer of the Board of the Model Cities of St. Paul, Inc and the Center for Communication / KMOJ Radio.